4. Spring Book Fair: begins March 24th

- Reading Night Out, Pre-K-3rd Grade, notes went out on Virtual Backpack, Wednesday March 29th

5. Field Day: get popsicles from Sams Club

6. Catholic Schools Week ideas for next year

- Next year give something to parents at drop off (ex. granola bar & apple)
- Skate Daze will be on Friday
- Family Fun Night Sunday after the open house, possibly add the pancake man

7. SJS 5K Run

- Looking for sponsors to help pay for bib and chips for runners
- Family picnic/gathering after the event at SJ school gym. Mrs. Howard's husband may be able to donate food. Colleen Corrigan may be able to get hot dogs from Omaha Steaks

8. Speaker: RESPECT training was well attended (90) parents & 29 kids in the nursery. Mr. Kelly wants 2-3 speakers a year. Looking to set up dates & ideas for next year.
 - Documentary on iTunes about body image
 - Katie Kalenberg's sister also has a body image presentation
 - Another topic from RESPECT
9. Directory: Crystal is looking into printers, SJS gets a discount at Office Depot, Sammie Becker is going to help with directory this year
10. Fall Fundraiser: Sarah Pritza has narrowed it down to 2 vendors. She presented both at the meeting and the members in attendance voted on the vendor to use. This will be a new vendor from last year.
11. Classroom Stipend: next year teachers will be given their stipend at the beginning of the year to be used throughout the year.
12. Uniform Sale; Administration is figuring out a new way to sell the uniforms/exchange them for others. Colleen Corrigan is going to meet with him and discuss some ideas.
13. Volunteer hours: Next school year each family is expected to do a certain amount of volunteer hours. Mr. Kelly is trying to determine how much each event counts.
 - School & parish hours
 - Option of not volunteering, but instead donating money
 - Idea: have past committee members help him to determine about how much time each event takes. Many events/ activities take more time than some may realize!
14. Committee Chairs: there are vacant spots open for Home & School activities for next year. These will be open to anyone who chooses to volunteer their time & talents.

Next meeting is April 5th!
